

Discover if you are a Third Culture Kid (TCK) or a Cross-Cultural Kid (CCK), or both!

Check all that apply.

During the first 18 years of my life...

- 1. I accompanied my parents to another country due to their work.
- 2. I moved between cultures and/or people in my life moved between cultures.
- 3. I interacted with two or more cultural environments for a significant amount of time.
- 4. I was born to parents from at least two cultures (they may or may not be of the same racial heritage).
- 5. I was born to parents from at least two racial heritages (they may or may not be of the same culture).
- 6. I attended school with a different cultural base than mine at home.
- 7. My parents were from a racial or ethnic group that was not part of the majority race or ethnicity of the country we lived in.
- 8. My parents made a permanent move to a new country where they were not originally citizens.
- 9. My parents were living outside their original country or place due to circumstances they did not choose such as war, violence, famine or natural disasters.
- 10. I was adopted from a country different than my parent's culture.
- 11. I moved in or among various cultures or subcultures within my home country.
- 12. I struggled with answering the question, "Where are you from?"

If you checked boxes 1 & 2 & 12, you are most likely a Third Culture Kid (TCK).

If you checked any box 3 - 12, you are most likely a Cross-Cultural Kid (CCK).

MuKappa

MuKappa is for you— where you belong! MuKappa is a collegiate organization for students who have grown up in a cross-cultural setting and also welcomes international students and people who are internationally inclined. Join a chapter on your university campus! www.mukappa.org